REDLANDS, CALIFORNIA

All persons interested in Iris should join

The American Iris Society

It publishes four Bulletins a year and brings to its members all the latest news about Iris, their culture, development, and history. It will help you enjoy your garden more, and will prevent your making many mistakes.

Membership is $3.00 a year. The money may be sent to us or directly to the Secretary of the Society, Mr. J. B. Wallace, Jr., 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

FOREWORD

This is the eighth edition of our little catalog. As usual, it must find its embellishment, not in brilliant color plates or expensive typography, but in the class of offerings it sets forth. In spite of steady elimination of varieties no longer considered useful to us, ours is still one of the largest study collections of Iris on the Pacific Coast, and as the resources of three other large private collections are also available to us through arrangement with their owners, it means that in spite of our very limited space we can generally meet reasonable demand and even in special cases often furnish quite large quantities. We never attempt to offer at any one time a full list of the 1000 or more varieties which our collection includes, so in case of specific desiderata unmentioned in this booklet special inquiry is invited.

The past season has proved in many respects a difficult one from the garden standpoint. with a long crescendo of heat and drouth through daffodil-time and on up to the peak of the Irises, so forcing the bloom that it was in no condition to withstand the sudden battering deluge of rain which then descended, so the best of our whole season was really only the decline through the cooler weather of May. In the face of such difficulties it was natural that many varieties failed to do justice to themselves, notably the Dominion tribe, whose touted substance forewent its usual royal velvet for the bedraggled finery of a slattern. Of them all only Acropolis and Bernardino as the two exceptions, reasonably held their own. For the others it was quite the worst season we have ever had, and even the splendid Sir Michael had to yield its usually easy position in our "best five" to Bernardino or perhaps San Francisco, both of which were better this year than we have yet had them and as clumps were very splendid garden objects indeed. Another variety which was surprisingly fine as an established plant and came far closer to justi-fying its award of the Dykes Medal than we would have guessed from some of the published criticisms was Vert Galant. The handsome W. R. Dykes was also exceedingly fine as a garden clump. It will surely occupy a place of its own for some time to come.

FLOWER SHOWS

Staging exhibits at four successive flower shows away from home, with a showing of from 60 to 90 varieties at each, was more of an undertaking than we may care to attempt again right away, but it afforded an interesting opportunity to note the kinds which appeared to make the most appeal at each. Why it is that at one show a particular variety will command more than its share of attention, while the very next week in another community a better exhibit of the same flower will pass relatively unnoticed is hard to explain. At Santa Barbara where they apparently want their Irises to be either pygmies or behemoths, the ones which received most notice were stolonifera, Hamadryad, wattii, and Massilia, followed by Mauna Loa, Sldg. 25-350-2 (Bernardino), Shasta. Osprey, and Purissima. At San Diego the favorites seemed to be wattii, San Francisco, Acropolis, William Mohr, Mauna Loa, Sequoiah, and cristata! At Pasadena it was our single spike of Sagamore above all else, then fulva, Cacique, Los Angeles, Sdlg. 24-174-22 (Palomar), Bravura, Gold Imperial, Crucible, Whitehill, and laevigata. Riverside was all for William Mohr, followed by Alice Eastwood, Acropolis, Cacique, Flush of Dawn, Athanael, Crucible, Jacinto, Canyon Mists, Joya, and Melchior. Since these respective exhibitions stretched through a period of about five weeks, the particular list of varieties shown differed considerably in each case, but the variation in taste revealed appears rather definite nevertheless. It is not difficult to suspect the fact that at Riverside the show had to be viewed under electric light throughout, from the circumstance that reddish or orchid tones were selected so consistently over blue. Nearly all of the kinds mentioned are interesting garden subjects as well as good exhibitions plants, so the list has some value, especially as many of them are within the reach of even a modest purse.

Whitehill, Palomar, Flush of Dawn, and Bernardino are 1931 introductions of our own, now for the first time enjoying a catalog listing. For Californian gardens each one of these is felt to be both distinctive and meritorious, and it is hoped that most of them will prove equally worth while in the north and east. Through the kindness of Miss Sturtevant we are also able to add to these another interesting novelty in Cavalcade, a noble variegata of her raising which has proven altogether dependable and outstanding under Californian conditions and for us fills a real need, even though in the east where variegatas are so much more used than here it must doubtless meet with greater competition. In their due place many other interesting productions, both American and European, are added to the present list, while a considerable number of those least useful among longer grown forms are now finally eliminated to give the new ones room. A few of the newer importations are offered subject to release from Federal Quarantine.

IRIS GIANTS

We feel that there is no peculiar magic either in tallness or bigness of an Iris. A decided disadvantage may even be involved. It is purely a relative thing, a reciprocal between the plant and the position and purpose for which it is used. To our notion no Pogoniris yet bred attains such perfection of loveliness as the very moderately proportioned hoogiana, stolonifera, wattii, and our native douglasiana, in their best forms surely four of the most utterly exquisite Irises which exist anywhere. Yet the best of the giants certainly bear themselves with a majesty which is not to be decried and in reply to many requests usually ending with rather petulant emphasis, "I do like the big ones!", the following list has been collated. Note that nearly all are Californian in origin.

CULTURAL NOTE

The culture of Irises depends mainly upon the particular group or type to which the plants belong. That of the majority of the Pogoniris or bearded group is very simple. Abstention from the use of retentive manure, a fair amount of lime in the soil, and good drainage are the principal points to attend to. The rhizome should be set in the earth at time of planting with the roots carefully spread and the soil well firmed about them, but the top of the rhizome only barely or not quite covered. They should ordinarily be watered well when first set, but more moderately thereafter. In Southern California the most successful Iris growers are those who irrigate their plantations occasionally through the summer, perhaps every few weeks like a citrus orchard, following each watering with a light cultivation.

For fertilizer we have found bone-meal, superphosphate of lime, wood ashes, and old plaster rubble all excellent.

Under our brilliant sun it is often surprising how much shade some of the varieties will stand and still yield a certain percentage of bloom, but a rather open position is generally best for the Pogonirises, as well as for the unguicularis, spuria, and ensata types.

Ridging the beds or planting on a slope is often resorted to with notable success.

Apogon Irises require somewhat more moisture and humus in the soil as a rule, and many of them dislike lime. For some groups, notably Oncocyclus and Regelia, quite special treatment is demanded—lighter soil, plenty of sunshine, extra care in drainage, abundance of lime, and no water in summer even if they have to be taken up and stored dry.

Most of the Evansias prefer considerable shade and are among the few Irises which do their best under such conditions.

For the common and disfiguring disease called leaf-spot, spray thoroughly with lime-sulphur in winter before growth is too far advanced and keep the diseased foliage well picked off and burned thereafter as it appears.

A WORD AS TO PRICES

We endeavor to make our prices as reasonable throughout as the quality of stock furnished and what we conceive to be our obligations to other growers will permit. For the more recent American introductions we endeavor to follow, at least for a reasonable period of years, the current quotations at which they are offered by their respective originators as exactly as our knowledge enables us and wholly regardless of the prices adopted by others in the field, or the size of our stocks, or the possible loss of orders.

Older established varieties are not subject to the same scruple, nor are the foreign originations, and here we try to set our price at the lowest figure at which we will likely be able to supply the ensuing demand, and at the same time justify continued propagation.

TERMS

Cash with order or references.

Fulfillment of all orders subject to stock on hand.

Prices are for strong, single rhizomes. The Iris borer has not yet come into our garden and every care is taken to keep stock as free as possible of rot and other troubles.

Where stock permits, twelve roots of a variety will be supplied for the price of ten. In many instances we are able to furnish three plants for the price of two.

We offer no guarantee except to do our best, but should stock sent prove untrue to name, every effort will be made to replace same satisfactorily.

Paid orders to value of $5 or over sent carriage free to any part of U. S., but where customer includes allowance for postage with order, extra plants will be sent to cover same.

Orders for plants, when accompanied by cash, except in the case of scarce novelties or special collections, are privileged to an additional selection of plants as follows:

Orders of $10 to $25 entitled to 5% additional Orders of $25 to $50 entitled to 10% additional

Orders of $25 to $50 entitled to 10% additional Orders of $50 or over entitled to 15% additional

For Immediate Garden Effect

We strongly recommend planting in groups of 3 or 5 rhizomes of a kind. Such a number may often be supplied at an appreciable reduction from the regular per unit price.

OUR OWN INTRODUCTIONS

JACINTO (1924). S. Light Lobelia Violet, F. Ageratum Violet; flower of fair size and attractive symmetry; 4 ft. stem, well branched; a tall pale blend of neutral tone with a pinkish cast: soft colorings, often seen on the beautiful mountain whose name it shares; reported entirely hardy in the north, 75c: 3 for $2.00.

CACIQUE (1925). H. M., A. I. S. Handsome, upstanding fulva hybrid, in Prune-Purple and Blackish-Purple, on the order of the well-known Dorothea K. Williamson, but with us taller and a more robust grower; warmer but less brilliant coloring: brilliant gold arrow on falls. Likes humus in soil and responds to good treatment. Reported hardy nearly everywhere. $1.00.

CANYON MISTS (1926). A very light mauve self, quite similar in color effect to Mlle. Schwartz, but has a longer season and does not fade out seriously in bright sun. A seedling of Caterina and very effective in mass where pale coloring is desired. Nearly everyone finds this a delightful subject which steadily improves with acquaintance. Reports as to hardiness are generally favorable. 3 to 3½ ft. $1.50.

MAUNA LOA (1926). H. M., A. I. S. A tall upstanding bicolor of a strong reddish cast, the rich Dahlia Purple falls giving the dominant color note. Very large flowers, beginning early and continuing over a long season. For so big and tall an Iris it seems to stand up amazingly well in rough weather. This has been one of the most admired Irises in our entire garden, and in Southern California at least is one of the finest possible subjects. Some northern and eastern growers report good success with this: others not. $4.00.

OSPREY (1927). H. M., A. I. S. An immense spreading pale lavender flower with a touch of yellow at the throat, somewhat between Souvenir de Loetitia Michaud and Mother-ofPearl in effect, but a far lovelier flower than either; shape and texture unusually fine, the one fault we have noted being a slight fading of the delicate coloring under hot sun. It is a magnificent exhibition Iris with a long season and a splendid grower. A leading New England grower writes: "Osprey was one of the loveliest irises in the garden everyone had an enthusiastic word for it." 3 to 3½ ft. $5.00.

- *SAGAMORE (1928). A fine tall fulva hybrid on the general order of Cacique, but redder and with a larger and more brilliant gold signal on the falls. The effect of this Iris in sunshine is exceedingly brilliant; height 3 ft. and over. Stock still small. $10.00.
- CRUCIBLE (1929). Grayish lavender with conspicuous golden throat which lends it noteworthy garden value. Large, floriferous, and distinct; 3½ ft. $5.00; 3 for $12.50.
- *ACROPOLIS (1929). H. M., A. I. S. A superb seedling of Conquistador by Moa, combining the deep richness of color of the pollen parent and the antecedent Dominion with the size and rampancy of the seed parent; S. clear lavender-purple, F. deep velvety blackish-purple; one of the four or five most beautiful bearded Irises in our entire garden; 4 ft. $25.00.
- TAFFY (1930). A jaunty little Iris much along the lines of its pollen parent (Gold Imperial) but done in tones of Reed Yellow, Sulphine Yellow, pearl, and Old Gold, the general effect a taffy-yellow self; beard orange; late flowering and delightfully warm in tone in the garden, besides combining well with many other flowers for cutting. We know nothing else at all like it. 18-24 in. $5.00.
- *WHITEHILL (1931). A seedling of the well-known Emperor, this promises to be at at least one white Siberian iris which like its parent can be grown well in our red clay, so inhospitable to most members of this lovely group. It is tall and shapely and the falls have a pleasing signal patch of yellow. It is named in honor of a certain garden of delight here in Redlands where the little plant first came to flower. $5.00.

- *BERNARDINO (1931). H. M., A. I. S. This is an enormous tall lavender and rosy purple bicolor of beautiful symmetry and carrying effect in the garden. Bred from Conquistador by Dominion, it has been outstanding even in a very fine batch of seedlings. This grand plant is in a class with Mauna Loa and Acropolis for magnificence. Early; 4 ft. or over. $25.00.
- *PALOMAR (1931). H. M., A. I. S. A large-flowered clear deep violet self, remarkable for brilliancy of color, smooth finish, and trim form, almost as though "tailored." Bred from a tall deep violet Conquistador seedling by Lent A. Williamson pollen, it is none the less of only moderate height. Floriferous. 3 ft. $10.00.
- *FLUSH OF DAWN (1931). A very floriferous soft blend in tones of Light Lobelia Violet, Light Brownish Vinaceous, and Olive Buff, all tints of the early morning sky. Similar in general habit to its seed parent, Jacinto, it is later and the unusual coloring shows the influence of the pollen parent, Mme. Cheri. This is wholly charming as the evening light filters through the petals, and is especially beautiful for use under artificial illumination, other flowers in tones of deep buff combining with it particularly well. It is proving an interesting parent in further breeding. $10.00.

A NEW GLEN ROAD IRIS

*CAVALCADE (Sturtevant—Berry, 1931) A big husky variegata, stronger growing than anything of its color class we have seen. Perhaps easiest described as a stronger, larger, taller and more brightly colored Fortuna. It is of striking garden effect and highly to be recommended for California. 3 ft. $5.00.

SPECIAL COLLECTION OFFER

Collection of one each of the five 1931 introductions totaling in value $55.00 inclusive of Cavalcade, will be sent postpaid for $45.00 net.

WILD TYPES OF POGONIRIS

We are especially interested in the wild forms of Iris and have a considerable collection of which the following of the bearded Irises are now available in more or less surplus. They are particularly interesting to those concerned in breeding work or botanically inclined, but most are likewise fine garden plants.

- Albicans. Lovely early flowering white Iris, indispensible in California where it is often in full flower in February and usually lasts till Easter. 25c; 5 for $1.00.
- Amas. A huge broad-petaled germanica from Asia Minor. 35c; 4 for $1.00.
- *Baveilles. A germanica form collected in the south of France by Sir Arthur Hort. $1.00.
- Biliotti. A rather low growing dark blue-purple Iris from Asia Minor. $1.00.
- Cengialtii. Small, but very floriferous lavender Iris from northern Italy; exquisite when massed. 35c.
- Como. A beautiful pallida collected in northern Italy by Farrer. $1.00.
- CRETAN. A collected form from Mr. Dykes; related to Kochii and Crimson King, but somewhat bluer. An exceedingly brilliant piece of color, especially when it first opens. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- Florentina. Useful, early mid-season white with a gray tone. 25c.
- *Imbricata. A very curious little species from the Caucasus decidedly rare in American cultivation; light yellow with purple splashes; 1 ft. Acclimated stock. (Withdrawn to increase stock).

- Istria. A very cool looking white with a distinct hint of green. It was collected by the late Mr. W. R. Dykes near Fiume. $1.00.
- *Kerman. A collected germanica from Persia. $1.50.
- Kharput. A good collected form of germanica from Asia Minor. 35c.
- Kochii. Dark blue purple. 50c.
- Madonna. Supposed to be the blue-purple form of albicans, but does not behave much like it in the garden. $1.00.
- MESOPOTAMICA. An enormous blue-purple Iris of Asiatic origin, which is an impressive garden subject in California and as a breeder has yielded some of the finest hybrids in cultivation. 75c each; 3 for $2.00.
- Mesopotamica b. A larger flowered form with sinuous stems. $1.50.
- Nepalensis. A deep blackish-purple form of Kochii. 50c.
- Pallida. Tall light lavender. 25c.
- Pallida Dalmatica. Similar to preceding, but larger flowers and deeper in color. 35c.
- Reichenbachii. A dwarf yellow Balkan species. 50c.
- *Rocamadour. An attractive early germanica collected by Sir Arthur Hort in the south of France. $3.00.
- *Syracuse. A handsome large-flowered form of albicans collected by Sir Arthur Hort in Sicily. $2.50.
- Trojana. Unusually fine strain of imported stock, $1.00.
- Trosuperba. A tall form of trojana; widely branched stems, $1.00.
- Variegata. A strong growing wild form of the true species from Sir Michael Foster's garden, originally no doubt from southeastern Europe. $1.00.

POGONIRIS-GARDEN VARIETIES

Duly allowing for personal preferences and special conditions, we have found all the varieties offered in the present list which we have had long enough for fair testing to be worth growing.

Varieties having the names printed in capitals are in a way specialties of ours, and of these we have developed a particularly fine stock. These are all highly recommended.

Varieties marked with an asterisk are mostly quite new sorts of which we have only very limited stock as yet.

The ratings of the recent A. I. S. Symposium are purposely omitted from the discussions of varieties as they are in large part so completely misleading for gardens in this part of the country.

- Abenda (Perry) . A very attractive red-toned blend. 50c.
- Acheron (Sturtevant). An exceedingly rich dark purple. $1.00.
- Afterglow (Sturt.) Lovely yellow-blended lavender. 35c.
- *Airy Dream (Sturt.) A large ruffled flower in orchid-lavender. $10.00.
- Alameda (Mitchell). The most heavily reticulated of Prof. Mitchell's new giant plicatas; violet and white. $1.00; 3 for $2.00.
- Albert Victor (Barr). An old but altogether good pallida. 35c.
- Alcazar (Vilmorin). A grand lavender and deep bronzy purple bicolor; does magnificently in California and is glorious in mass. 35c.
- Aliquippa (Hall). A truly lovely soft clear yellow of good size and height for its type. $1.50.
- Allure (Murrell). A soft "fireglow" blend coming from England under high recommendation. $5.00.

- *Alvarado (Mohr). A giant seedling from Lent A Williamson. 50c.
- Ambassadeur (Vilm.). Magnificent bronze and black-maroon bicolor. 35c.
- Amber (Dykes). A yellow from England with a high reputation. 50c.
- Amerind (Andrews). One of the most beautiful of the new brown Irises and a fine grower. $1.50.
- *Ammon (Perry). A pretty cengialtii hybrid. 50c.
- Anna Farr (Farr). A very refined plicata. 50c.
- *Anndelia (Sturt.). A distinct and most exquisite new plicata. $10.00.
- Anne Bullen (Hort). One of Sir Arthur Hort's newer blue-purple bicolors. 50c.
- Ann Page (Hort). A much admired lavender-blue Iris of Caterina type. 35c.
- Anosia (Williamson). Bronzy gold and maroon. 35c.
- ANTONIO (Hort). Bright purple bicolor with gigantic flowers of curiously attenuated outline; very fine. 50c.
- APHRODITE (Dykes). By no means a real pink, but a superb Iris nevertheless; form and style altogether individual. $1.00.
- Archeveque (Vilm.). Rich velvety purple bicolor, 35c,
- Argentina (Mohr). One of the new Mohr whites which has been greatly admired and proven hardy in the east. For our vicinity we much prefer Edith Cavell and Theseus. Argentina is, however, a notable parent in breeding. 35c.
- Argonaut (Bliss). One of the airiest and daintiest of the Bliss pallidas. 50c.
- Argynnis (Wmsn.). An exceedingly brilliant brown-red and yellow variegata, one of the - very finest of the type we have yet tested. Strongly recommended. 35c.

- ARIEL (Murrell). Ethereal hare-bell blue English variety of charming garden effect. $1.00.
- Arnols (Barr). A fine deep bronzy squalens. 35c.
- Arsace (Millet). A lovely tall flower in soft lilac, with a note of grey. 50c.
- *Arzani (Sturt.). A deep-colored Iris of imposing habit. $4.00.
- Asia (Yeld). A very late light lavender bicolor of size and height; an impressive Iris, and glorious for cutting but in the garden often requires staking. 75c.
- ASPHODEL (Morrison). Clear light lavenderviolet. An exquisite thing. $2.00.
- *Athanael (Mil.). A striking big red-toned Iris, distinctive both for garden and exhibition, and strong in growth. $2.50.
- Athene (Sturt.). White with heavy contrast in the throat veining; very lovely. This combines beautifully in the garden with Bluet and such yellows as Primrose and Gold Imperial. 50c.
- AURELLE (Denis.). A very rich crimsonpurple. This is a magnificent thing with us. $1.00.
- AURIFERO (Mitchell). Exquisite pale lavender with a glint of gold in the throat. $1.00.
- Aurora (Foster). An exceedingly dainty pale pinkish lilac. 50c.
- Autocrat (Cleveland). Violet bicolor with attractive venation. 35c.
- *Autumn Glow (Sturt.). One of the more recent of the lovely Sturtevant yellows. $3.00.
- Autumn King (H. P. Sass). A blue-purple Iris of high quality quite outside its desirable autumn-blooming habit. $1.00.

- AVALON (Sturt.). Large flowers of a lovely shimmering Light Mauve; an Iris masterpiece, which planted with San Gabriel, gives an extraordinarily long season. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- Azrael (Morrison). A large-flowered purple bicolor of fine outlines. 75c.
- Azulado (Mohr). Pale grayish pearl, toned with lavender; very large flowers. 75c.
- Azure (Bliss). Very bright-toned lavender and violet bicolor. 50c.
- *Babylon (Wallace). Strong-growing rich bronze-purple bicolor. $10.00.
- Balboa (Mohr). One of the Mohr giants which seems to be hardy in the east. 50c.
- *Baldwin (Sass). Full, deep, clear blue-purple; a striking plant. $5.00.
- BALLERINE (Vilm.). Handsome big fluffy flower in pale lavender with a style all its own. 50c.
- Bandollero (M.-M.). A giant Lent A. Williamson hybrid. 50c.
- Barrelane (Sturt.). A large lavender-violet flower of good habit. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- Belisaire (Cayeux). A striking tawny blend something like a glorified Dejazet. 75c.
- Bernard Galloway (Perry). A well formed lavender with a charm of its own. 50c.
- Bertrand (Bliss). One of the finest and most distinct of the Dominion Race; tall and a strong grower. $1.00.
- Black Prince (Perry). Old, but still unexcelled for richness of color; exceedingly late; should not be planted where the least drip can mar the heavy black-purple velvet of the falls; true stock. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- Blue Bird (Bliss). Of a strong blue tone. $1.00. Bluet (Sturt.). A dainty and useful blue toned Iris; should be much more widely planted. 50c.
- Bolingbroke (Hort). White with a shading of blue. 50c.

Bonita (M.-M.). A moderately tall yellow of Californian origin; over 30 in. $1.50.

Brandywine (Farr). A late flowering pale blue-lavender. 75c.

Bravura (M.-M.). An imposing big Lent A. Williamson hybrid. 75c; 3 for $2.00.

Brilliant (Bliss). Strongly red-toned and an effective garden color. 75c.

*Bruno (Bliss). Rich and velvety, even for a "Dominion." A magnificent Iris, but not invariably easy to manage. $2.00.

B. Y. Morrison (Sturt.). Deep purple falls with lavender edging matching the standards; slow grower with us. 50c.

*California Blue (Essig). Bluish violet, large and early. 5 ft. $1.00.

Cameleon (Lemon). Dainty, narrow-petaled flowers of only medium size, but of peculiar garden charm; late season. 35c.

Cameliard (Sturt.). A large yellow blend of Caterina habit and unusual coloring. 4 ft. $15.00.

Camelot (Bliss). A wonderfully dainty tall plicata. 35c.

Cameo (Sturt.). An exquisite yellow blended bicolor. 50c.

Candelabre (Vilm.). A striking flower in dark blue-purple and white. 35c.

Candlelight (Andrews). A large soft yellow and lavender blend of Caterina-type. Fine strong habit. $2.00.

Canopus (Bliss). Tall bronzy bicolor; first of the famous Dominion Race to be available at a low price. 50c.

Caprice (Vilm.). The most popular reddish lilac Iris of low price. 25c.

Carcanet (Sturt.). A dainty light yellow. 35c.

Carnival (Wmsn.). A curiously blended bicolor of medium height. 35c.

Caroline E. Stringer (Sass). A most dainty Pale Rose Purple self. 75c. Carthusian, Large deep blue-lavender. 50c. Cassandra (Perry). Tall deep lavender and purple. 75c.

Caterina (Foster). In some northern climes does not succeed, but where it does well one of the most superb tall light-blue Irises. 35c.

Celeste (Lem.). An invaluable pale lavender

Iris, most lovely for massing. 25c.

*Challenger (J. Sass). A vigorous dark purple intermediate. $5.00.

Chasseur (Vilm.). Soft yellow with an interesting touch of brown in the throat. 50c.

Chief (J. Sass). Royal-purple intermediate. 75c. Chlorinda (Mor.). Soft yellow with some brown veining; with us of rather low growth and therefore planting well in front of other yellows. 75c.

Circe (Sturt.). A deep violet flower of unusual appearance. 50c.

of the clear yellow standards renders this one of the loveliest from the garden standards round of all variegatas. It is one of our favorites of the group in spite of the somewhat splotchy falls. 50c.

Claridad (Mohr). Clear lavender blue; a lovely color and subject. 50c.

Clio. A handsome pallida. 35c.

- *Clytemnestra (Wall.). Large bicolor with rich purple falls. $10.00.
- *Cockatoo (Mor.). One of the new yellow plicatas. $5.00.
- Colias (Wmsn.). Very attractive pale yellow. 35c.
- Col. Candelot (Millet). Small flower but a rich near-red in color. 35c.
- Colusa (M.-M.). Smooth petunia-violet self. $1.00.
- Commandant Driant (Millet). One of the new dwarf Irises from overseas. 50c.

Conchita (M.-M.). Light bronzy bicolor blend. $1.00.

Conchobar (Bliss). A strong-growing and richly colored Dominion seedling. $1.00.

CONQUISTADOR (Mohr). A gigantic strong growing Iris, with few rivals for sheer magnificence in the garden; huge flowers on stout stems 5 to 6 feet tall. No collection should be without it. 35c.

*Cooley Surprise (Cooley). Very tall bluetoned self; 4 ft. $7.50.

*Corona (Sturt.). New yellow and white bicolor. $10.00.

Coronado (Mohr). Lovely tall Iris somewhat suggestive of Asia in coloring. 50c.

Corrida (Mil.). Clear blue-lavender and very charming, 35c.

Crimson Glow (Perry). A very handsome new Iris of the general type of Edouard Michel. 50c.

Crimson King. An indispensable standby among purple Irises, especially in California where it blooms abundantly at almost any time of year. 25c.

Crusader (Foster). Rich blue-violet of fine habit. 50c.

Curiosity (Perry). An early dwarf Iris of odd green and brown coloring. 25c.

Cygnet (Sturt.). A lovely tall flower, very chaste in its clean cut outline and artistic blending of cream and ivory. Without a present compeer in its class. 4 ft. 75c.

Dainty Lady (Weed). A rather small-flowered blend of medium height. Yellow and lavender are the prevailing tones. 35c.

Damozel (Morrison). A most lovely ruffled plicata. Greatly superior to Parisiana. 50c.

Daniel Lesueur (Denis). Large yellow-ground plicata, 50c.

Day Dream (Sturt.). A large pink-toned biccolor blend, greatly admired. $8.00.

- Dejah (Perry). One of the tallest hybrid pallidas; a very effective Iris. 50c.
- Dejazet (Vilm.). A soft reddish blend. 50c.
- Delicatissima (Millet). A fine, tall, lilac-toned Iris. 35c.
- DELIGHT (Sturt.). Most chaste and stately of plicatas; very distinct and fine. Often wrongly listed, the true variety is one of the most exquisite things we have. $2.50.

Saul (Denis). Very rich coloring; late. 50c.

Schwanhilde (G. & K.), 50c.

*Seafoam (Sturt.). A new white intermediate. $5.00.

*Sea Nymph (Yeld), Tall, silvery lavender self. 75c.

Seedling D-27 (Williamson). Rather small dark squalens, remarkable in the group for its slender stems and rich color of the falls: a distinct and pleasing subject here. $1.00.

Seminole (Farr). Rich red-purple with velvety falls; very telling in the garden. 35c.

*Senorita (M.-M.). Soft yellow blend. $1.00. Sensation (Cay.). Large, finely finished flowers of clear blue-violet. $3.00.

SEOUOIAH (Shull). Tall sturdy stem with rich reddish flowers of fine form and substance and very splendid in effect. To our notion by far the finest of the Shull seedlings that we have seen. $3.00.

SHASTA (M.-M.). Enormous creamy-white with amber reticulations on the haft. One of the very finest white Irises for Southern California planting. $2.50.

Shekinah (Sturt.). Soft vellow. 35c.

Sherbert (Sturt.). An unusual bicolor in old gold and brown. 35c.

*SHYLOCK (Hort). A very fine lavender Iris, certainly one of the noblest of the Hort productions. $1.00.

- *Silver Mist (Dykes). Rather small silvery lavender. 50c.
- Simone Vaissiere (Mil.). A large light bicolor of Lord of June type with very pale lavender standards and deeper falls. 50c.
- *Simplicity (Dykes). $1.00.
- Sindjkha (Sturt.). Subdued tones but of magnificent habit and growth. 35c.
- SIR MICHAEL (Yeld). No description can do this Iris justice; it must be seen. It is a purple bicolor richly suffused brown and illuminated by a wonderful orange beard. $7.50.
- Snow White (Sturt.). A lovely pure white with pale green markings. $2.00.
- Solana (Shull). A hybrid variegata which is genuinely refined and beautiful; fine grower in California. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- SOLEDAD (Mohr). A lovely early amber yellow of unusually clear tone. 35c.
- *Sophronia (Mor.). Large flowered white. $2.00.
- Souv. de Loetitia Michaud (Mil.). Enormous pale lavender flowers on tall stems. One of the most admired of Irises, but surpassed for our district at least by Osprey. $1.50.
- SOUV. DE MME. GAUDICHAU (Millet). Rich, deep violet; magnificent both as specimen and clump; no Iris lover should be without it. 35c.
- Speed (Hort). A blue-purple bicolor remarkable for the clear luminous light blue of the standards. An exceedingly beautiful Iris. $1.00.
- Stanley H. White (Sturt.). A slightly veined yellow self. 50c.
- Statellae. A small very floriferous early Iris of distinct garden value; cream yellow. 35c.
- Steepway (Scott). An unusual and much admired blend. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- *Stipples (Essig). A new plicata with very pronounced stippling. $1.00.

39

- *Storm (Murrell). A striking deep bronzy intermediate. $5.00.
- *Sunbeam (Murrell). A new clear yellow intermediate imported from England. $3.50.
- Susan Bliss (Bliss). One of the most beautiful of the lovely group of pinkish-lilac Irises. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- Swatara (Farr). Of distinct garden effect. 35c. *Swazi (Bliss). A rich velyety purple "Domin-
- *Swazi (Bliss). A rich velvety purple "Dominion." $3.00.
- Sweet Lavender (Bliss). Very fresh and neat; distinct from all other lavender Irises. 50c.
- Syphax (Bliss). An attractive bicolor which flowers well in fall or winter as well as spring. 35c.
- Taffeta (Cleve.). Bronzy lavender. 35c.
- Taj Mahal (Sturt.). White, with lavender veining at throat; pallida habit; chastely beautiful; most costly Iris in commerce at time of introduction. 50c.
- Tamerlan (Vilm.). Large violet-purple flowers. 35c.
- *Tancred (Sturt.). A curious buff and purple Iris difficult to describe; very sturdy. 75c.
- *Tenebrae (Bliss). One of the most sombre of the Dominion group; very rich and fine. 75c.
- Terias (Wmsn.). A more coppery Quaker Lady. 35c.
- *Thais (Cay.). Fine tall large-flowered rosy lilac flower somewhat recalling Mrs. Marion Cran but larger and later. $2.50.
- THESEUS (Hort). Creamy white with yellow throat; fine form and splendid substance; strong grower; one of the finest of the wonderful new white Irises and exceedingly effective as a garden clump. 75c.
- Thundercloud (Sturt.) Smoky blend. 50c.
- *Timur (Sturt.). A heavy, dusky flower with velvety variegation. $2.00.
- Titan (Bliss). Gigantic spreading flowers on 4-foot stems; Dominion Race; very strong grower; at its best an extraordinary Iris, $1.00.

*Titus (Perry). Deep pinkish lilac. 50c.

Tristram (Bliss). S. white; F. deep purple, 50c

Troades (Perry), 50c.

Trostringer (Sass). Pale rosy lavender self. $1.00.

Trouvaille (Cay.). A striking purple amoena with white standards and white-bordered falls. $1.00.

True Charm (Sturt.). Evenly frilled lavender plicata; very lovely. 50c.

True Delight (Sturt.). Closely similar to True Charm but distinguished by the strongly pink-toned style branches. $1.00.

Turk. Neat-flowering, bright lavender intermediate, 35c.

*Uncle Remus (Essig). Large dark purple. $2.50.

Valencia (M.-M.). A distinct tawny yellow of medium height. In great demand because of its lovely coloring. 50c.

Valery Mayet (Denis). Small flower of rich mahogany tones. 35c.

Valkyrie (Sturt.). Splendidly rich and somber in color: titanic in growth, $1.00.

Venetia (Dykes). One of the brightest of the new blue-toned Irises. The beard is yellow. $1.00.

*Vert Galant (Cay.). Big deep brownish red flowers with a heavily reticulated white throat; the clump effect very striking. $30.00.

Vesper Gold (Wmsn.). A blended apricotyellow with violaceous reflections. $1.50.

Victorine (Lem.). White and violet. 25c.

Viking (Bliss). 50c.

Viola (Foster). A bright violet cengialtii hybrid with a style all its own. A floriferous and charming Iris. 35c.

*Violet Lake (Dean). Bright rosy purple. $1.00.

- Virginia Moore (Shull). Very good late yellow. 35c.
- Walhalla (G. & K.). A good bicolor intermediate; extraordinarily floriferous. 25c.
- Warrior (Sturt.). A rich, dusky bicolor of imposing height and habit. 35c.
- W. C. Terry (Perry). A violet-purple bicolor. 50c.
- WEDGWOOD (Dykes). A lovely flower of bright clean tone, strikingly blue for an Iris; very floriferous; fine grower; greatly admired by every visitor, and much the best of its type; a beautiful color for the garden picture. 75c; 3 for $2.00.
- Western Dream (Weed). Dainty mauve-toned layender. 35c.
- Whiffenpoof (Sturt.). A ruffled flower of olivebuff and red-violet; the reputedly crude colors tone down nicely under the bright California sun. 35c.
- White Knight (Saunders). Pure snow white. 35c.
- White Queen. A very pure and delightful white. 50c.
- WILD ROSE (Sturt.). An exquisite rosy lilac, which approaches true pink in the medium tones more closely than any other Iris we know; has proven a fine grower with us and very floriferous though form not of best. 50c.
- *W. R. DYKES (Dykes). Gigantic crepy flowers which this season came almost a pure amber with scarcely any markings on the falls and were one of the most striking groups in the garden; the handsomest yellow we have had thus far. $30.00.
- Yellow Hammer (Denis). Good deep yellow intermediate. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- YELLOW MOON (Sturt.). Beautifully rounded flowers of clear cream yellow; one of the very loveliest of the new yellows. 50c; 3 for $1.00.
- *Yellow Tom-Tit (Sturt.). Small late yellow. $3.00.

42

Yeoman (Bliss). A very handsome and easily grown Dominion seedling. 50c.

Yvonne Pelletier (Mil.). Tall pale lavender; late. 50c.

Zanzibar (Sturt.). Very dwarf dark purple of great value for low borders and edgings. 50c.

Zephyr. An exceedingly dainty pale lavender with small neat flowers and rather low growth. 50c; 3 for $1.00.

Zilia (Perry). A very pretty tall hybrid pallida. 50c.

Zouave (Vilm.). Dainty lilac plicata. 35c. *Zulu (Bliss). A very dark purple "Dominion." $2.00.

POGONO-CYCLUS AND POGONO-REGELIA

The following hybrids of various Oncocyclus and Regelia Irises with members of the Pogoniris group are interesting and not unduly difficult of culture. These, together with members of the three following groups form the rather diverse assemblage of forms lately classed together in a government bulletin as "Palestine Iris hybrids," a nearly complete misnomer, the general adoption of which should be strongly discouraged.

Bellorio (Mohr). Soft gray-lavender, 35c.

Carmelo (Mohr). Blue-violet 35c.

*Cherokee Maid (Wmsn.). Withdrawn to increase stock.

*Congres (Cay.). Deep reddish bicolor, very distinct from others of the series; offered subject to release from Federal Quarantine. $5.00.

Dalkish (Foster). Conspicuously veined. $2.00. Dorak (Foster). Another of the strongly veined purple forms, $1.50.

GIRAN (Foster). Wine-colored. We have two distinct things under this name but have been unable to discover which is true. Both are beautiful Irises. $1.00.

IB-MACRANTHA (Van Tubergen). A striking lavender and red-purple bicolor with bronze shadings; enormous rounded flowers.
$3.00.

Ibpall (Foster). Purple-veined. $1.00.

Ismali (Foster). $2.00.

Korolcyp. A pigmy French importation which looks like a small purple pumila but is claimed to have korolkowi blood. $1.00.

Lady Lilford (Foster). Handsome rich purple. $1.50.

Morera (M.-M.). Mulberry purple korolkowi hybrid. $1.00.

Nazarin (Foster). Another of the interesting purple-veined forms. $1.50.

Nefert (Foster). Soft blue without markings except the darker signal; quite handsome and entirely different from others of the type. $1.50.

Pandora (Foster). $2.00.

Parvar (Foster). $2.50.

Semele (Foster). $2.00.

Shiraz (Foster). $3.00.

WILLIAM MOHR (Mohr). The result of a parisiana-Gatesii cross and one of the most extraordinary hybrid Irises ever raised. A magnificent Iris for exhibition and a strong healthy grower, though demanding perfect drainage. We hold a remarkably fine stock. $2.50; 3 for $5.00.

Zwanenburg (Denis). An odd brownish flower with purple splashes. 35c; 4 for $1.00.

ONCOCYCLUS

(Early summer or fall delivery only)

*Susiana, Grayish white veined black-maroon; the somber but beautiful "Mourning Iris." We are not sure that our small present surplus will care for more than the current advance orders. $1.50 each if available.

REGELIA

(Early summer or fall delivery)

- *Hoogiana. Clear satiny lavender blue. Working up a stock acclimated to our heavy soil has proven quite difficult and at present only a few surplus roots are available. $2.00.
- Korola (Dykes). A quaintly colored and interesting hybrid between korolkowi and stolonifera. We have not found it at all difficult to grow. $5.00.
- *Leichtlinii. A variant form of stolonifera. $3.50.
- *Orestes (Van Tub.). Beautiful ruddy brown. $2.00.
- stolonifera. A lovely bronze and blue wild species from Turkestan; acclimated stock of a particularly fine blue-bearded form and one of the choicest things in this catalog. An ideal rock garden subject, this and not the true korolkowi is what Reginald Farrer must have meant when he wrote of a certain Iris that it "is a slender grower, rising to a couple of feet at the most, and bearong one or two elongated gracious flowers, whose colour is an indescribable mixture of fawn and brown, with the clearest, gentlest, electric blue. I would go any lengths to grow this, but I never have." $2.00; 3 for $5.00.
- Turkoman (Dykes). Another korolkowi-stolonifera hybrid which to our notion is one of the loveliest hybrid Irises ever raised. Only a few for sale. $2.00.
- *Vaga. Another interesting variant of the stolonifera group. $3.50.

REGELIO-CYCLUS

(Early summer or fall delivery only)

The following are beautiful but not, we think, altogether easy to handle. They should be treated the same as the Oncocycli. We have been a long time trying to work up a small California-grown stock.

Charon (Van Tub.). Golden brown; one of the most beautiful of this group. $1.50.

*Flora (Van Tub.). Wine and brown; heavily veined. $2.50.

*Hebe (Van Tub.). Violet venation on pearly ground, $1.00.

*Hera (Van Tub.). Violet-purple with ruby and bronze suffusion. $1.50.

*Hesperia (Van Tub.). Lilac with brownish veins, $2.50.

EVANSIA

- Cristata. A tiny wild species from North Carolina; likes partial shade. 35c.
- Cristata Alba. Acclimated stock of this dainty form which is very hard to find in California. $3.00.
- Gracilipes. This woodland elf is practicable in southern California gardens only under special conditions: shade and loose woodsy earth which is not allowed to bake out. Offered subject to condition of stock. $1.50.
- JAPONICA a. Fleeting light blue flowers with delicate mottling; the spikes keep flowering over a long season; likes partial shade. $1.00.
- JAPONICA b. Paler blue than the preceding.
- Japonica Uwodu. A less floriferous but very beautiful and possibly hardier collected form from Japan. Withdrawn for increase.
- *Milesii. A rare form from the Himalayas. $3.00.
- Tectorum. The well known Roof Iris; flat blue-purple flowers with a conspicuously fringed white crest. 50c.
- Tectorum Alba. The exquisite white form of the preceding. $2.50.
- WATTII. An amazing Iris from the southeastern slopes of the Himalayas with a habit somewhat recalling a dwarf bamboo, flowers white or lightly tinted, borne in airy panicles over a long season; scarcely known to American horticulture as yet and therefore of untested hardiness in most parts of the country but in Southern California at least in no respect a difficult subject. $2.00.

APOGON American Species

CACIQUE. (See introductions.)

*Chrysophenicia. Tall reddish purple from Louisiana. $4.00.

Foliosa a. Withdrawn for 1931.

Foliosa b. A particularly lovely collected form from Mississippi. 50c.

Fulva. Interesting bronze-red form from the south. $1.00.

Dorothea K. Williamson (Williamson). The most brilliantly colored Iris in this group, saving Sagamore. 75c.

SAGAMORE. (See introductions.)

SAVANNARUM. Handsome, tall blue Apogon from the Florida swamps, which has proven very amenable to California cultivation. $1.00.

Shrevei. A beautiful wild lavender Iris from Arkansas. $1.00.

Shrevei b. White, bordered pale lavender; exceptionally fine foliage; a delightful and interesting subject, especially adapted to a rather moist position. $1.50.

*Vinicolor. Tall wine-colored Iris from Louisiana. $5.00.

Mediterranean Group

(Winter flowering)

Unguicularis. Light violet. 35c.
*Unguicularis Lilacina. An imported form highly thought of in England. $1.00.

UNGUICULARIS VIOLACEA. The most luxuriant grower among the exquisite winter-flowering Mediterranean Irises. This is what we formerly listed as Marginata, but as there is a form going under this name which is much more conspicuously margined as well as less rampant, it seems best to use some other appellation for the present form. Lovely for long borders; September to April. 25c each; $20.00 per 100; good clumps 50c each.

UNGUICULARIS ALBA. White and gold; slightly shorter blooming season than preceding. Says the inimitable Farrer, "It is a flower straight from heaven—a transcended snowy Crocus or Zephyranthes." Same price.

*Queen Elizabeth. Small blue-lavender with white venation. $1.00.

Speciosa. Withdrawn to increase stock.

Spuria Group

(Fall delivery only)

A. J. Balfour. Fine, tall, blue. $1.00.

*ALICE EASTWOOD (Branin). A magnificent ochroleuca hybrid. One of the handsomest Irises in this group. $5.00.

Aurea. Tall, deep yellow. 75c.

Halophila hybrids. The plants offered are from a strain of pretty seedlings, the color varying from white and cream to lavender. They are charming for cutting. Height about 4 ft. 75c; 6 assorted for $3.50.

Juno. An interesting blue-purple of the Mon-spur type. $1.00.

Lord Wolseley. Handsome blue-purple hybrid; tall. 75c.

Monaurea. Tall medium-toned yellow. $1.50. Monnieri. Moderately tall, soft yellow. $1.00.

Monspur, Tall, blue-purple. 75c.

Notha. Beautiful pale lavender form of spuria. 50c.

*Ochraurea. A fine tall hybrid in two shades of vellow. $1.50.

Ochroleuca. Tall. white and vellow. 35c.

Ochroleuca Snowflake. A beautiful variant form. 75c.

Ochroleuca Sulphurea. Yellower than typical ochroleuca. 50c.

Ochroleuca Warei. A very handsome variant of ochroleuca, $1.00

*Oueen Victoria, A splendid tall cream and gold Iris. $3.50.

SHELFORD GIANT. One of the grandest plants in the group. $3.00.

Spuria, Lavender-blue, 50c.

Tertio. Tall blue-purple, with somewhat veined falls. $2.50.

Siberian Group

(Fall delivery only)

*Caezar (Morgan). We are very fortunate in being able to offer a few plants of this superb new deep violet Siberian. $5.00.

*Delavayi. Interesting tall blue species from Western China. We have a very few acclimated plants. $2.50.

Emperor. Magnificent dark blue collected form. 75c: 3 for $2.00.

Florrie Ridler (Perry), Deep blue, $1.00.

Lady Northcliffe (Perry). Deep violet with white throat, 75c.

Perry's Blue. Fine light blue. 75c.

Perry's Pigmy, Dwarf blue. 50c.

Snow Queen. Snowy white with yellow throat. 50c

Miscellaneous

Ensata. Asiatic species; small, fleeting, lavender flowers over a long period. $1.00.

Foetidissima. The Gladwyn Iris; an exceptionally fine strain with handsome deep green leaves, and flowers varying from greenish and light yellow tones to bright red-purple; ornamental pods of bright scarlet seeds in fall. $1.50.

Japanese Iris, Alice Kiernan. The loveliest of this type we have grown; crepy white with a blue misting on the fall; fall and winter delivery only. $1.50.

*Iapanese Iris, Violet Beauty. Deep velvety violet self. $1.50.

Pseudacorus Gigantea. A giant yellow marsh flag; very fine for a moist place. $1.00.

JUNO

(Early summer or fall delivery)

*Bucharica. A very few acclimated bulbs to offer of this quaint little cream and gold Iris from Bokhara. $2,50.

*Persica. A ravishing combination of grayish lilac, sea green, and brown; an easy Iris to manage in some soils, in others almost impossible. Offered subject to state of stock. $1.50.

OTHER BULBOUS TYPES

(Early summer or fall delivery)

Our little stock of these never lasts long and orders should get in early.

- *Histrio. Quaintly marked small lavender species from Galilee. $1.50.
- *Reticulata. A very few bulbs to offer of this small brilliantly colored species. $1.00.
- *Vartani alba. The jewel-like white form of this exquisitely fragrant wee species from the Holy Land, excessively rare in occidental cultivation. $2.50.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

Some suggestions for those uncertain how to choose.

"Iris Calendar" Collection For All-Year Bloom

36 plants, including at least 12 distinct varieties selected to cover as nearly as possible the entire year by their blooming period. This is a particularly useful collection for a Southern California garden. $20.00 net.

For Early Bloom

Collection 1—3 Mesopotamica, 3 San Gabriel, 3 Albicans, 3 Soledad. $5.00.

Collection 2—3 Zwanenburg, 3 Soledad, 3 dark purple dwarf; a very pretty grouping can be made with these. $2.50.

"California" Collection

For those who wish to try a series of the superb new California productions in Irisdom we offer (1) a beginning collection of 12 distinct varieties, our selection, but including San Gabriel, for $10.00, and (2) a still finer collection comprising the same number of varieties for $25.00.

"Sunshine" Collection

For those who like yellow we offer (1) a set of 10 different yellows and yellow bicolors for $5.00; also (2) a finer selection to the same number of plants for $10.00.

"Dominion Race" Collection

There has been such a furor concerning the various Irises derived from Dominion that the price on most of them has long remained very high. Furthermore some are less successful than others in many gardens, and it has been hard to have to gamble on them. I am now able to offer a set of 6 all different, labeled, for $5.00, the varieties depending largely upon the particular beds being worked over at the time of receipt of order. This should place them in the reach of many who have hitherto not felt justified in making their purchase.

IRIS COLLECTION FOR BEGINNERS

Ten varieties, named, for $2.50, postpaid; very good value selected. Twenty varieties, $5.00. Fifty varieties (a fine lot, including many uncommon things), $25.00. Same collections in triplicate at double the price.

Cheap named varieties for mass plantings, $15.00 to $25.00 per 100; carriage extra.

OTHER BULBS

(For Summer or Early Fall Delivery)

- *Freesia Apotheose. Grand large-flowered pink variety from Holland. When cheap enough should replace Mouette. Very few bulbs to offer this season. 50c each.
- Freesia Buttercup. A Freesia of Dutch origin which is close to being the finest yellow variety in commerce; wonderful for California; strong home-grown corms. $1.50 per doz.
- *Freesia Contrast. Creamy white with strongly contrasting yellow blotch. $1.50 per doz.
- *Freesia Golden Guinea. Deep yellow English variety. $1.00 per doz.
- *Freesia Golden King. Clear deep yellow. $1.00 per doz.
- *Freesia Yellow Queen. Clear light yellow. 50c each.
- Gladiolus tristis. Charming slender African species; early and deliciously fragrant at night. 6 for $2.00.
- Narcissus canaliculatus. Quaint pygmy tazetta from the Riviera. Reported shy of bloom in some gardens, but a delightful subject where suited. 10 for $3.50.
- *Sparaxis. Red, with black, white, and yellow markings; exceedingly vivid and gay. $1.00 per doz.
- Ranunculus Emperor of China. Double clear yellow. $1.50 per doz.
- Ranunculus Primrose Queen. A delightful full double pale yellow. $1.00 per doz.

Muscari armeniacum. $1.00 per doz.

Muscari Heavenly Blue. 75c per doz.

Scilla Campanulata Excelsior. Glorious tall blue; acclimated bulbs. $2.50 per doz.

*Bletilla hyacinthina. Beautiful Chinese terrestrial orchid of the easiest culture in Southern - California; deep rosy lilac with white-pleated shirt front. Strong tubers. $3.00.

- *Bletilla hyacinthina alba. The exquisite white form. $10.00.

(For Late Fall or Early Spring Delivery)

Montbretia His Majesty. The grandest Montbretia we know. Superlatively fine. 3 for $1.00.

Montbretia Princessa. A beautiful companion to the preceding. 50c each.

Camassia Mauve Queen. Tall pale mauve. 50c.

(Available at Any Season)

Hedychium coronarium ("Ginger Lily"). Canna-like growth; waxy white flowers with a rich frangrance; fall blooming. 50c.

*Hedychium gardnerianum. Taller, with deeper green foliage and yellow flowers. $1.00.

Hemerocallis Aureole, Clear orange yellow. 60c.

Hemerocallis Calypso. Light yellow Burbank hybrid. 50c.

Hemerocallis fulva. The old-fashioned tawny day-lily. 25c; 5 for $1.00.

Hemerocallis flava major. Low light yellow. 35c.

*Hemerocallis. Gold Standard. Large deep vellow. $5.00.

Hemerocallis Maggie Perry. New English fulva hybrid in deep coppery orange, almost red. $2.00.

Hemerocallis Sovereign. Deep yellow. 50c.

*Moraea iridioides. Lovely Iris-like flowers through a good part of the year; ornamental foliage. 50c.

Sisyrinchium striatum. An interesting "Blueeyed Grass" from Chile, with tall racemes of creamy yellow flowers. Unusual and exceedingly effective in the landscape. 3 for $1.00.

1931 Iris Discards

The following Iris varieties have been for one reason or another eliminated from our garden the past season and we do not anticipate listing them again, though we have no doubt that some of them may be quite desirable and fine on their home heath or in other parts of this big country.
